KC from KC and the Sunshine Band to Attend Albuquerque Film & Music Experience (AFME) Screening and Q & A

Albuquerque, NM – April 24, 2015 – The Albuquerque Film & Music Experience will feature a special guest at the June 3rd screening and Q & A session of "The Record Man." In attendance will be award-winning and widely popular musician, KC of KC and the Sunshine Band.

The musician, whose music is loved by many generations, has been in the entertainment industry for over 40 years and had hits, such as "Get Down Tonight," "That's The Way (I Like It)," and "Shake Your Booty." KC will be taking part in the Q & A, immediately following the showing of "The Record Man."

"It's an honor to have another legendary musician present at this year's film and music experience, especially as we screen a film that showcases Henry Stone, what the music business once was and how KC's career really took off with Henry's guidance," said AFME creator and executive producer Ivan Wiener. "It's always a great feeling to bring such a high caliber entertainer to Albuquerque and spread the excitement, and KC's presence will do just that. If you are a music fan, you don't want to miss this AFME special event."

"The Record Man," directed by Mark Moorman, will show at the KiMo Theater at 8:00pm on Wednesday, June 3rd. The film tells the story of Henry Stone. Before there was a 'music business' there was Henry Stone, 'The Record Man.' From distributing records out of his '48 Packard to signing artists such as James Brown and KC and the Sunshine Band, Henry established TK Records as the largest independent label of the 1970's. Through Henry Stone, the Record Man captures forgotten music history as we witness the dramatic arc of the record business from inception through the digital age.
